There is no entry fee for this tournament. We plan to have food and coffee, please bring a food dish to share. We will supply coffee, lunch meats, and bread. This will be our standard tournament format, 48 shots in 6 shot strings, lowest total time wins. Total time will be clock time plus a 2 second penalty for each plate left standing. All members with a NY handgun permit are invited to participate. This is a fun shoot so don't stay home because "I'm not good enough". Everyone is good enough to shoot our tournaments. December, 5, 2011

Today, the NRA sent a letter to the U.S. Senate opposing the nomination of Caitlin Halligan to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia. This letter follows a similar letter sent to the Senate in March of this year.

NRA Delivers Twelve Big Wins in Congress for Gun Owners

One of the most important ways that Congress has protected the Second Amendment is through a number of general provisions included in various appropriations bills. Many of these provisions have been included in the bills for many years—some of the provisions go back almost three decades. This conference report is no exception, as it contains 12 provisions that strengthen the Second Amendment and protect the American people.

U.S. House of Representatives Passes NRA-backed H.R. 822, the "National Right-to-Carry Reciprocity Act"

The U.S. House of Representatives has passed an important self-defense measure that would enable millions of Right-to-Carry permit holders across the country to carry concealed firearms while traveling outside their home states. H.R. 822, the National Right-to-Carry Reciprocity Act, passed by a majority bipartisan vote of 272 to 154. All amendments aimed to weaken or damage the integrity of this bill were defeated.

NRA-ILA Legal Update

On Sept. 29, a federal judge in the Northern District of Texas decided in favor of the federal government in a case brought by the NRA challenging the federal restriction on the purchase of handguns by 18-20 year old adults. The case is far from over, as the NRA has already filed an appeal.
